Residents, families and community guests were treated to a scrumptious spring brunch/antiques appraisal on April 6. On hand to welcome everyone were local officials, Ellen Jaffe and Thom Kleiner. Resident Terry Melville was honored for his years of service as the Resident Council Chairman with an award from Christopher St. Lawrence. Terry exemplifies the caring spirit of the Esplanade family.

Spring Has Us Bursting Out in Verse at the Esplanade CR

At the Esplanade Chestnut Ridge, we enjoy a very active life with many clubs to share our interests. Some of the clubs we have are the Literary Club, Card Club, Men’s Club, Trips Club, Movie Club, Gardening Club, Mahjongg and Scrabble clubs, the Puzzle Club, the Fitness Club, Walking Club and the Cooking Club. We are always doing something here “to write home about!” Recently, our Literary Club explored the haiku poetry genre with our volunteers and then wrote their own tributes to spring.

We're Hunting for Actors!

We're getting ready for a BIG PRODUCTION and we need YOU to act in our "Murder in Swingland" on July 1. John Fogarty, local musician and the creator, will be directing us in this "murderously" funny musical.

We will have four rehearsals, every Tuesday evening in June. You need not make every rehearsal.

COME AND JOIN THE FUN
